No. 17/55

Clandestine Services Training Officers' Meeting, 12 May 1955

Summary of Proceedings

Report on Status of Training Standards

1. Chairman, CSTC, reported that the committee was now establishing training standards for DD/P positions. The committee was proceeding to identify job families throughout DD/P and the skills that supported them, to establish adequate standards of performance, and, finally, to select the training courses necessary to fulfill requirements. The committee was also considering the adequacy of existing courses and the possibility that new courses might be required.
